Welcome Back
Office of the President
July 1st, 2020

Dear Colleagues,

I hope and pray this finds you and those you love safe and in good health. To those faculty and staff whose roles and responsibilities have you returning to one of our campuses, I heartily welcome you back!

Thanks to the tireless and collaborative efforts of many individuals and teams, we have established detailed contingency plans and extra safeguards to help protect the health and well-being of our faculty and staff.

It is now time for us to catch a healthy breath and prepare to deliver our core promise to our students. This has required significant pivots both physically and emotionally. I continue to be proud and humbled by the flexibility, resiliency and commitment each of you demonstrates.

If you haven't already, I encourage you to complete the training that is in your Workday queue. This training outlines how we can best continue to protect ourselves and one another with masks and social distancing.

I look forward to seeing many of you on campus in the days and weeks ahead.

I will be masked but smiling.

Gratefully,

Rev. John P. Fitzgibbons, S.J.
President
